

A New Direction

A few years ago, my life did change.
His call reached my heart and I thought of it as strange.

"Why am I wondering about God? What Christians say certainly isn't true.
I can tell there's no truth to their religion. I can tell by what they say and do."

Yet God was tugging at my heart, as I pondered along the way.
Hearing Him for myself, has made me who I am today.

I can tell you that I love Him and to me He is most
dear.
Regardless of where you are in life, He can make your pathway clear.

Don't allow poor examples to distract you from serving the King.
A beautiful addition to His kingdom your life will certainly bring.
