

Abisag

Beyond cute and reaching Heaven's door,
Abisag is a young lady who has much in store.

She is beautiful, alert, pure and true.
Her desires weren't in the world nor did she have a temporal view.

She was selected to minister to a most noble King.
She offered her life without dispute or murmuring.

Did she cry, did she pang, did she make excuse or beg to put away God's calling and choose her own route instead?

No. She didn't, she remained faithful, holy and true.
She ministered to her King as He purposed her to.

So young ladies this concept I want you to know and be sure:
God can use your life and in His kingdom keep you secure.

But please don't hesitate or remove yourself from His plan.
He's offering you a legacy that you may not understand.

You have a special position in His Kingdom, your presence is a vital cure.
Don't stray away from His commandments, keep yourself pure.

No one can fill your role, no one can do your job.
Keep yourself sanctified, your peculiarness don't allow the world to rob.
