

All is Well in Jesus' Name

To the Saints that are near and those worldwide,
allow me to exhort you and confidently confide:

God watches every action and He knows every thought,
no power can alter His plans, nor can He be stopped.

He wants me to let you know what He's been telling you
for years,
He's by our side and within us, STOP harboring
debilitating fears.

His plan is going as scheduled and everything is on time.
He cannot be outwitted, instructed, or in any way confined.

So cheer up, remove the dust, and strengthen the brethren too.
Be encouraged as salvation triumphantly breaks through.

There is no plan that can change what God has in mind.
His strength cannot be diminished, take refuge in The Truth and find..

that all is well in Jesus' name,
keep building your ark and staying true to His claim.
