

Being At Ease

I will rest, I will trust, I will be more than okay.
For Jesus' love for me will not fade or stray.

I am well taken care of within His magnificent arms.
Threats from the enemy sounds no alarms.

His threats are a façade to get my mind off cue.
Being derailed from God's commands is something I won't do.

I will be at ease for I have nothing to fear.
I hear a knock on my heart from God, He's asking me to come near.

He's asking me to draw closer to Him in the midst of Satan's brigades.
"Of course I will Lord and Savior for I have no time for charades."

Pleasantly Lord I lay my head across Your chest.
I will hear the flow of Your heart as You guide me into what's best.
