

Hallelujah! Here He Comes!

Hallelujah, here He comes our Savior is soon to arrive!
Keep pressing, move forward, abound, and continue to thrive.

Are you tired soldier and you don't think you can make it another year?
Keep your head on straight, look around, it's tougher because His coming is near.

Satan wants to beat you up, he doesn't want your light to shine.
Keep your foot in the church and don't be left behind.

This life is going to have gruesome trails and we must endure this race.
Heaven is worth it, don't give up, fall into the Savior's grace.

When you don't think you can go another step, lay down in His hand.
Renew your strength, believe The Word, and do the best you can.

This is no time to slumber or let go of your daily drills—forsaking prayer, not reading The Word, gives bullets to the liar that kills.

Get used to the sweat, muscle aches, tears and the strain.
Eventually you'll develop more strength to dance through the rain.

Jesus' grace abounds and He doesn't spare in the comfort He rears.
Seek Him first in all your ways and you'll find comfort though there are tears.
