

I Agreed

I agreed to give my life to You in exchange for Heaven's crown.

I added my name to enlist in Your army though I knew persecutions would abound.

I agreed that I must do things Your way despite what my mind thinks.

I obliged to a life of commitment whether my faith is strong or sinks.

Adversity and no longer being the head of my life will not untie my commitment to be Yours throughout all the blows of strife.

The battles won't pull me away from the commitment I made.

When my name is called in Heaven, let it be said my agreement was obeyed.
